“ Dear Family, I know that you probably don't remember me. But I stayed with you when Johnny was sick and in the hospital. That's been a long time. If you remember Pearl Wilt you may remember me. I'm so sorry to hear about Carolyn. My deepest sympathy to all of you.

“ Dear Family: I am deeply sad to learn of the passing of one of my cousins, daughter of my Aunt Dove. It has been many years since I saw her as a little girl but I remember her and all her siblings with great love. May God's blessings be with you in this time of need. John, and all the family of Bessie Mildred Eubank (Armentrout)
