“ Diane was a beautiful lady inside and out who loved her grandbabies with all her heart. We have been friends for about 12 years or so now. She was my sons best friends grandma ,Jamar and Kenny started school together in headstart and still remain friends to this day. Diane always made sure Jamar and Kenny got together when she had him for the summer. She will be missed by my family very much. Kenny says love you and fly high grandma! R.I.P. Sweet Diane we will miss your smile and kind heart and will never forget you. To the family sorry for your loss! Jamar honey if you need anything just call we love you buddy. Hope to see you this summer.
