“ Leroy, I just wanted to let you know that I am so sorry for your loss. I loved your mother so much, as a teacher and as a person. She was truly a gracious lady. I enjoyed Journalism class with her because she got to show her wonderful, witty sense of humor. It was always good to see those sparkling eyes and dimpled smile. Take care, Becky (Marple)

“ Robert and I both are saddened to hear of Mrs. Crislip's passing but thrilled to have had her in our life. Robert remembers that she taught his Junior class English and liked the group so well that she moved up to Senior English with them (1968). She was a favorite of so many (both of us included). I especially think of her as setting examples by doing. She was a reminder that we should always put our best foot forward - manners, physical appearance and work ethics. She was a gift to all of us but especially to you, Leroy. Her love for you was beautifully obvious. Prayers, Debby Fisher McCoy
