“ Our thoughts and prayers will continue to go out for the Cochran family. Words cannot speak the appreciation and love that Connie and I have for both Mr. Harry and Mrs. Sue. Both have treated us like their own family for many years. We will miss Bro. Harry greatly, however his legacy will live on through his family for whom Connie and I consider our family too. Even as the days drew closer for Bro. Harry's homegoing He never lost his Faith, He continually encourage and pray for his family and those around him. When we first met Bro. Harry twenty years ago we saw him as a mountain of a Man, One that stood strong in stature and in faith. As his stature weakened his Faith Grew. Bro Harry show us that at the end of our journey it's not the strength of the man, but the strength of one's faith that will carry us through. We love you Mrs. Sue and your family. “ As Jerry said we didn't get to see each other much in later years, but Harry and family was never far from our thoughts. Norman talks often of making those trips from Youngstown together. I will always remember fondly growing up with Harry and the time he spent visiting with me at the store as he mentioned one of the last times I talked with him. Sue and children remember he lived to go to a better place and he would like us all to prepare to meet him there, when our time here is done. LOVE YOU Mary and Norman
