“ Frank, Mary, Ann, Becky, and Kathy, I am so sorry for your loss. Your mother was one of the best moms I ever knew. She was so good to me, Ann when we were teenagers in school. Your dad was an amazing man of God and a true man among men in my mind. I don't think I ever told you, Ann, that your dad was preaching a revival at the little church on Pleasant Ridge above Glade View when I was about 7 or 8 years old and that I went to the altar that night. To me, all of you had the best parents I've ever known. I saw first hand, the love they had for each other and for all of you. I've never forgotten the impression both of them made on me. I know your mom has had to miss your dad so much since he left us but now, at last, they are together again. Wish I could be there to tell all of you these things in person. But even though I can't, please know that your family is in my thoughts and I will stop and take time to honor your mother at the hour she is celebrated home.

“ Growing up beside Ilene & Okey was a true blessing. I spent as much time at their house as I did my own grandparents! I would sit & listen for hours to stories and Ilene always made Chicken & Dumplings that were my favorite! She had a gentleness about her that made me feel so warm & I felt like one of her own! She will truly be missed by all who knew her but she finally has Okey by her side once again! God Bless! Love you guys, Jennifer & the rest of the Armentrout family!
