“ I didn't know Mr. Bennett personally but I just wanted to let the family know how sorry I am for your loss. I know that death can be difficult to have to deal with because recently I have also lost friends and family. So I understand the pain you are going through. But in dealing with the loss of my loved ones, I found that the Bible contains some very comforting scriptures in it. I hope you get as much help out of them as I have: Psalms 37:11,29 Isaiah 25:8 John 5:28,29 John 11:25 Acts 24:15 Revelation 21:4

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. Junior was a great man who lived a long and productive life. He will be missed by all who knew him. I know I'll miss his gentle smile at the reunion on the mountain. Wish I could get there for the services but am currently headed out of town and just can't get there. My prayers and thoughts will be with you all. God bless and wrap his arms of love around each of you.
