

Montia Brown

December 16, 2010

Montia Brown, Sr., 93 of Hacker Valley, WV, died on Dec. 16, 2010 at Braxton Health Care Center, Sutton, WV. He was born in Marpleton, WV, a son of the late McKinley J. and Virginia "Jenny" Crowe Brown.

He was a coal miner and saw mill worker, and attended the Hacker Valley Baptist Church. He was an Army Veteran of WWII. He also enjoyed playing music and horses.

He is survived by sons: Montia J. Brown, Jr. of Thomas, WV, and Darell O. Brown of Fayette County, WV, brother: Kenneth J. Brown of Hacker Valley, WV, sisters: Anna Rose Morrison of Sutton, WV, Nelle Bickel of Webster Springs, WV, Frances Lundsford of Replete, WV, and Juanita Mollohan of Hacker Valley, WV, 3 grandchildren: Milissa Nacole (Bernado) Maria, Marty Shane (Carrie) Brown, and Stephney (Joe) Troyan, and ten great grandchildren, Katelynn, Tristian, Gabriella, and Nicholas Maria, Alexis, Taylor and Logan Brown, and Brandon, Savannah and Lilly Troyan.

Services will be held at Dodd & Reed Funeral Home, Webster Springs, WV, Sunday, December 19, 2010 at 2 P.M. with Rev. Chris Cosner officiating. Burial will be in the Chestnut Grove Cemetery, Hacker Valley, WV. Friends may call at the funeral home from noon until 2 P.M. Online condolences will be received at www.doddreedfh.com.

Tribute Wall

WS

“Montia James & family I am so sorry to learn Uncle Mont had passed. I don't know how I missed it. I would have been there. I had thought about him often and wanted to see him. Wish I had known he was in the nurseing home I would have went out. only a couple miles from it. I will pray for you all and would love to see you. God Bless you and your family and hold you in his arms to comfort. Love you Wilma Lea

Wilma Lea Bleigh Smi - December 21, 2010 at 04:35 PM